

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: July 21, 2010

Contact: Jay Lyon, (773) 529-1212

Pipefitters' Local Union 597 to host FREE supermarket refrigeration seminar on Sept. 28

(Chicago, Ill.) — Chicago Pipefitters' Local Union 597 has announced it will host a free Supermarket Refrigeration Seminar from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 28, including a free lunch. The seminar will be held at the Local Union 597 Training Facility, located at 10850 W. 187th St. in Mokena, Ill.

The seminar will be taught by representatives from Sporlan, a leading manufacturer of HVACR components for more than 70 years.

Topics for the program include:

- Review of Supermarket Systems
- Oil Management Systems
- Thermostatic Expansion Valves
- Refrigerant Distribution
- Suction Regulation
- Head Pressure Control
- Heat Reclaim
- Defrost Operation
- Optimizing System Efficiency

This seminar is open to all Refrigeration Industry Personnel (Service, Sales, Contractors & Supermarket Personnel).

To register, call Kathy Griebel at (708) 326-9240, email kgriebel@pftf597.org, or fax name and company information, including a current email address, to (708) 326-9241.

Chicago's Pipefitters' Local Union 597 is the largest pipefitter local in the world, with more than 6,000 active members. Local Union 597 offers a four-year United Association (UA) apprenticeship program and continuing education that allows pipefitters, welders and HVAC service technicians to continually upgrade their skills, earning certifications that ensure their professionalism.